GOULSTON & STORRS DIRECTOR, CHRISTINE D. LYNCH, ELECTED TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF ACG BOSTON

BOSTON, August 10, 2010 --- Goulston & Storrs is pleased to announce that Christine D. Lynch, a director of the firm, has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Boston Chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth. Chris has been an active member of ACG Boston for several years, and currently serves as Chair of the Emerging Professionals Committee.

At Goulston & Storrs, Chris is a member of the Bankruptcy & Restructuring Group and focuses on business restructurings and M&A transactions involving financially distressed companies. Most recently, Chris represented Magic Brands in connection with the sale of the Fuddruckers and Koo Koo Roo restaurant chains to an affiliate of Luby's, Inc.

Christy Dancause, Executive Director of ACG Boston, said, "We are absolutely delighted to welcome an industry leader like Chris to our Board. She is well known and highly regarded in the legal community, and we're confident that she will continue to play a significant role in furthering the goals of our members and organization."

Chris received her undergraduate degree, magna cum laude, from Georgetown University and her law degree from New York University School of Law. She has been recognized as a leading business lawyer by Chambers USA and The Best Lawyers in America. Chris is admitted to practice law in Massachusetts and New York.
