In a lively question and answer bench/bar roundtable format, Hon. Janet L. Sanders of the Business Litigation Session (BLS) will join experienced business litigators to address a number of timely questions concerning close corporations.

Topics include:

- Attorney-client privilege in the context of close corporations
- Distinctions between direct and derivative claims
- Disqualification of counsel
- Contractually imposed limits on fiduciary duties
- Recent decisions concerning close corporations

Don't miss this opportunity to have your questions addressed and to network with other practitioners in your area of practice.
