

Cathy A. Berardi

Paralegal

cberardi@goulstonstorrs.com

Cathy Berardi is a paralegal who supports commercial retail transactions of all kinds. With more than 15 years of experience, Cathy drafts leasing agreements; reviews, analyzes, and amends leases; helps establish commercial retail portfolios; and resolves leasing issues involving tenants.

Cathy's background includes working as a real estate paralegal facilitating complex transactions and as a litigation paralegal managing trial preparation and case settlements. She also worked as a lease analyst, handling lease agreements and other related matters.

As a result of her well-rounded experience, Cathy provides outstanding client support across virtually any retail, real estate and leasing matter.

Education

- Massachusetts School of Law (J.D.)
- Northwestern University (Paralegal Certification)
- Northeastern University (B.S.)
 - Accounting and Finance