

Connor A. MacIsaac

Associate

CMacIsaac@GOULSTONSTORRS.com

Boston: +1 617 574 0572

Connor A. MacIsaac is an associate in our real estate group. During law school, he served as a judicial intern to U.S. District Court Magistrate Judge Marianne B. Bowler in Boston, Massachusetts. Connor served as a student attorney at the Boston College Legal Services LAB advising clients concerning eviction proceedings and family law matters. Connor also served as the Vice President of the Real Estate Law Society, and as a Senior Editor on the Boston College Law Review.

Prior to law school, Connor also served as an intern for U.S. Congressman Stephen Lynch (D-MA) working with a team of six people charged with responding to constituent concerns about many issues, including veterans' benefits, social security, and immigration.

Admissions

- Massachusetts

Education

- Boston College Law School (J.D., 2019)
- Boston College (B.A., 2016)