

Corporate Real Estate

Even today, as more and more business is conducted on-line and employees are able to work remotely, real estate remains critical to the success of most businesses. Whether it's the relocation of a company's headquarters to a more efficient and sustainable space or the acquisition/development of a manufacturing plant, the decisions made with respect to a company's real estate have a direct and real impact on the bottom line of its business.

As a nationally recognized leader in real estate, the Goulston & Storrs Corporate Real Estate group brings an unparalleled depth and breadth of experience to corporate clients. We help our clients make intelligent real estate decisions by helping them assess both current and future needs. As a result, issues can be adequately dealt with at the onset of the real estate transaction.

The Goulston & Storrs Corporate Real Estate group helps its clients in virtually all areas of corporate real estate matters, including:

- ownership strategies
- acquisitions and dispositions
- leasing and sub-leasing
- sale/leasebacks
