

Cross-Border

Goulston & Storrs has one of the most established cross-border practices in the Northeast. We advise both US and non-US based companies in their international business activities. Whether they are investing, obtaining financing, or bringing a business across borders, we serve clients in many industries including, technology, private equity and venture capital, healthcare, hospitality, manufacturing, real estate and retail.

Over our many years of representing clients internationally, we have developed a network of strong local counsel-relationships around the world. Goulston & Storrs is also a member of Meritas, a global alliance of independent, high-tier law firms with over 6500 lawyers in 170 firms in 60 countries.

Goulston & Storrs successfully represents companies globally in their cross-border matters, including in Europe, China, Israel, India, Japan, Canada and the Caribbean in the following areas:

- Foreign direct investments
- Inbound structuring for non-US companies
- International tax structuring
- Joint ventures and strategic alliances
- Mergers and acquisitions
