Gary Ronan is an experienced litigator and counselor with significant experience in real estate and professional liability matters. In his real estate practice, Gary advises and advocates for clients on zoning, leasing, permitting, and a range of other real estate matters. In his professional liability practice, Gary defends lawyers and law firms in malpractice cases and provides legal ethics advice.

He also represents employers in matters involving discrimination, employment contracts, and other employment matters, and he maintains a broader litigation practice, handling appellate matters, representing parties in intra-entity disputes and complex commercial litigation, advising clients concerning licensing issues, and advocating for clients in trust and estate litigation matters.

In addition to his work for clients, Gary serves as the firm's Assistant General Counsel. In this capacity, he advises the firm and its members on matters of professionalism and risk management.

Law Firm Defense in Securities Offering Case

Defense of a law firm against claims that the firm's work in connection with a securities offering destroyed its corporate client's business prospects.

Defense of Trustees in an Action for Breach of Fiduciary Duty and Removal

A beneficiary sought the removal of two trustees of a Massachusetts Business Trust, alleging that the trustees had acted beyond their authority and breached their duties in carrying out a number of complicated transactions designed to place a conservation easement on family-owned land and exchange various parcels of land among several trusts. At trial, the Court found that the trustees had not breached their duties and awarded fees and costs to the trustees. The Appeals Court determined that the trustees had authority under the trust to effectuate the transactions at issue and affirmed the trial court's determination that no breach of fiduciary duty occurred.

Defending Law Firm and Lawyers in Estate and Business Succession Case

Defense of a law firm and individual lawyers against malpractice claims arising out of the preparation of an estate and business succession plan.

Enforceability of Settlement Appeal
