

International Investment in U.S. Real Estate

The Goulston & Storrs International Investors group represents non-US businesses investing in US real estate. We help clients navigate the opportunities and potential concerns of cross-border investments in United States property, including acquisitions and dispositions, distressed debt, preferred equity structures, joint ventures, mortgage and mezzanine loan financing, bankruptcy, work-outs, litigation and tax structuring issues.

Our clients include international banks and insurance companies, private equity funds and other real estate investment companies and groups in Germany, the Netherlands, Israel, Canada, China and other countries.

Recognized for our strength in the real estate industry, Goulston & Storrs attorneys have great depth of experience across all major US property types.
