

Jason E. Dunn

Director

jdunn@goulstonstorrs.com

Boston: +1 617 574 3560

Jason Dunn has a wide-ranging practice that encompasses all aspects of commercial real assets, with a focus on representing domestic and foreign institutional clients in equity and debt investments in North American real estate and infrastructure through funds, co-investments, joint ventures and REITs.

Through his representation of tax-exempt and international investors, Jason is experienced with tax and ERISA transaction structures.

Jason's commercial real estate and infrastructure practice also includes public-private partnerships, acquisitions and dispositions, occupancy and ground leases, sale-leasebacks, development and financing.

Jason is a Co-Chair of the firm's International Investors group.

Accolades

- "America's Leading Business Lawyers," Chambers USA
- Best Lawyers in America® (2019-2020): Real Estate Law
- Legal 500
- Massachusetts Super Lawyers
- Massachusetts Super Lawyers - Rising Stars

Admissions

- Massachusetts

Education

- Boston College Law School (J.D., summa cum laude, 1997)
- Lafayette College (A.B., magna cum laude, 1994)

Representative Matters

Foreign Pension Fund Investor – Investments in U.S. Real Estate and Infrastructure

Representation of a foreign pension fund investor in connection with its joint venture, commingled fund and club fund investments, and co-investments, in U.S. real estate and infrastructure, including over $2B of equity in infrastructure investments (power generation (conventional and renewable), independent transmission, and transmission and distribution utilities; road and other transportation assets; and water infrastructure); “anchor investor” positions in real estate funds; and programmatic real estate joint ventures.

U.S. Corporate Pension Fund Investor – Investments in U.S. Real Estate

Representation of a U.S. corporate pension fund investor in connection with its direct investments in all sectors of U.S. real estate, including its investments in programmatic joint ventures for the acquisition and development of industrial properties (International Airport Centers) and student housing properties (Pinecrest Partners).

Boston Properties – Marriott Headquarters

Represented Boston Properties in a 50-50 joint venture with Bernstein Companies for the development of a 700,000 s.f. world headquarters building for Marriott International and in structuring credit enhancement and backstop financing arrangements for an adjacent 230-room flagship hotel to be managed by Marriott.

Davis Street Land Company – Sale of Regional Mall Portfolio

Represented Davis Street Land Company in the sale of The Mall at Green Hills in Nashville, Tennessee and The Gardens on El Paseo and El Paseo Village in Palm Desert, California to The Taubman Realty Group Limited Partnership for $560 million.

Development of Liberty National Golf Club

Represented a golf course development company in connection with its development of the Liberty National Golf Club in Jersey City, NJ, including: land acquisition (assembly of parcels through contract with local redevelopment agency); joint venture with local developer; NJ brownfield redevelopment program; golf course membership documents; and joint venture recapitalization.

Publications

October 19, 2015

What's Market? Update: Maryland REIT

Community

Jason is a frequent instructor in MIT's Master of Science in Real Estate Development (MSRED) program. Jason is also active in the MSRED Alumni Association's annual CASE competition, which is an international real estate development case study competition in which graduate student teams analyze and program a real-world development site.