Jesse Rubinstein is a corporate attorney who focuses on complex finance transactions, including private equity sponsored leveraged buy-outs.

He counsels lenders in connection with domestic and cross-border leveraged finance transactions involving syndicated and bilateral institutional loans, secured and unsecured credit facilities and mezzanine debt.

Prior to joining Goulston & Storrs, Jesse was a corporate finance associate at the New York office of an Am Law 100 law firm. During his tenure there, Jesse spent a year as a legal “seconded” to a major financial institution, serving as in-house counsel to its asset management division, asset management placement agent, and secondary private equity fund.

Abacus Finance: Streamlined Legal Services Enable a Client's Competitive Advantage

Abacus Finance was founded in 2011 by experienced commercial financiers with a unique vision. They sought to finance an under-served but important and growing group of borrowers – lower-to-middle market pioneer enterprises backed by family capital or private equity sponsors. Their goal, as a senior lender in a range of sophisticated sponsor-backed leveraged recapitalizations and buyouts, was to provide these enterprises with $10 – $50 million in capital through senior secured debt and equity investments in a quick, custom, and cost-effective manner while minimizing risk.
