Joshua is a litigator who focuses his practice in probate and fiduciary litigation, including: will and trust challenges involving allegations of undue influence, incompetency, and fraud; breach of fiduciary duty and removal actions; contested accountings; trust and estate property disputes; and other probate and fiduciary litigation matters.

In his practice, Joshua represents individuals, families, and corporate fiduciaries, as trustees, personal representatives, administrators, and beneficiaries.

Prior to joining Goulston & Storrs, Joshua was an associate in the litigation group of one of New Hampshire's largest law firms. In this role, he counseled clients on all aspects of probate and fiduciary litigation in Massachusetts and New Hampshire.
