

Lee Sheehan

Associate

LSheehan@goulstonstorrs.com

Washington, D.C.: +1 202 721 1153

---

Lee Sheehan is a real estate attorney. Her practice focuses on land use and transactional matters in commercial real estate development as well as assisting clients with international investing ventures. During law school, Lee served as a legal intern with the Federal Trade Commission's Office of International Affairs and as an intern to Legal Affairs Correspondent Nina Totenberg at National Public Radio (NPR).

Prior to law school, Lee was a violinist with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, the Tucson Symphony Orchestra, and the Knoxville Symphony Orchestra.

Accolades

- Fellow, Tanglewood Music Center, Lenox, MA (Summers 2011, 2012).
- Fellow, National Repertory Orchestra, Breckenridge, CO (Summer 2010)

Admissions

- Maryland
- District of Columbia

Education

- Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 2019)
- Indiana University Jacobs School of Music (M.M., 2013)
- Northwestern University (B.M., 2010)

Publications

March 8, 2021

Office of Planning Introduces Phase 2 of IZ XI to Apply to Non-Residential Conversions

December 30, 2020

PPP2, Real Estate, and Tax Highlights of Year-end COVID-Relief Act (The Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021)

April 6, 2020

CFIUS Releases Geographic Reference Tool for Real Estate Regulation

February 24, 2020

Final Regulations Go Into Effect for CFIUS Jurisdiction Expansion

January 13, 2020

CFIUS Jurisdiction over Real Estate Transactions Expanded: Foreign Investors Should Take Notice