

Nordo M. Nissi*

Head of Electronic Discovery and Litigation Technology

nnissi@goulstonstorrs.com

---

Head of Electronic Discovery and Litigation Technology in the firm's Litigation group, Nordo Nissi is responsible for all phases of electronic data discovery projects. He has over a decade of experience working with clients across a broad range of industries.

Nordo's ability to solve complex issues during the discovery phase has allowed him to successfully implement advanced eDiscovery workflows, reduce discovery costs, and manage eDiscovery teams around the world.

Nordo is a member of the Board of Directors for New England Litigation Technology Professionals (NELTP). Prior to joining Goulston & Storrs, Nordo was a Senior Analyst for the Litigation Technology Group at an Am Law 20 firm.

**Nordo Nissi is not a practicing attorney.*

Accolades

- Finalist for the Impact Award for Service & Delivery Technology at the LMA Conference, 2016
- ACE Team Award, 2014
- Pro Bono Public Service Award, 2007-2009

Affiliations

- New England Litigation Technology Professionals (NELTP), Board of Directors

Education

- Union College (B.A., 2007)

Publications

March 24, 2020

Law & Candor: New Efficiency Gains in TAR 2.0 and CMML Revealed

Law & Candor Podcast

August 15, 2019

Spacey Case Points To Cos.' Need To Preserve Devices, Data

Law360

November-December 2018

Avoid the Noise of Tech Allure

Corporate Counsel Business Journal