

Office & Industrial

The Goulston & Storrs Office and Industrial Group brings an unparalleled depth and breadth of experience to clients developing, purchasing, selling, leasing and operating office and industrial properties throughout the country.

With comprehensive market knowledge and a wide range of expertise in all facets of real estate transactions, the group provides its clients—domestic and international real estate investors, owners, developers, lenders, hospitals, universities, non-profit institutions and large corporations—with legal services that are as practical as they are sophisticated. We add value to all of the projects we work on, whether a straightforward stand-alone building, a complex multi-property transaction, or an intricate mixed-use development.

Goulston & Storrs has the unique ability to provide the full spectrum of legal services while maintaining an individualized and responsive connection with our clients. We place special emphasis on developing a long-term partnership with each client and deliver expansive services related to acquisitions and dispositions, development and permitting, environmental and green business, joint ventures and tax planning, financing, construction and leasing.
