

People On The Move: John Hanify

October 26, 2018

Boston Business Journal

"Earlier this month, John Hanify joined Goulston & Storrs' Litigation Group as Counsel in its Boston office. John is recognized as a leading business trial lawyer in Massachusetts, representing businesses and financial institutions in complex, high-stakes commercial litigation. The addition of John follows a growing list of industry leaders who have chosen to move their practices to the firm. Prior to joining the firm, John practiced at an Am Law 100 firm and founded Beacon Hill's Hanify & King."
