

Tech Talk USA

October 15, 2020

Buzz TV

Each week on "Tech Talk USA," host Jeff Hootselle sits down with experts in the information technology world. Jeff spoke to John Arsneault, Chief Information Officer for Goulston & Storrs.

John discusses how COVID-19 has accelerated technology and notes the pandemic has shifted thinking around the use case for some technologies. He also mentions a host of emerging technologies that are likely to change the quality of life for the future.
