

The Price of Free

April 9, 2018

Many people are upset that Facebook has been selling their personal information to various data mining companies. Recently the show Silicon Valley took a shot at the company by changing the Facebook sign to one with Russian letters in the show's opening sequence. Soon Facebook will be making an appearance in front of Congress...